PLAN FOR PLAY

_____, located in _____
(Region #) (City/State)

Many AYSO regions hold a single, primary playing season at a single time of the year. Some play one primary play program in the fall and hold one or more completely separate primary play programs at other times of the year. Others play what is called a split season, playing some games in the fall, take the winter off and pick up again in the spring where they left off. Other regions conduct a primary play program at one time of year and conduct some sort of secondary play program at other times (indoor season, tournament teams, travel ball, e.g.)

This region's primary play program will take place (check all that apply):
